

No. 100 – 2017

The Embassy of the United States of America to the Holy See presents its compliments to the Secretariat of State and has the honor to inform the Secretariat of further details regarding U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Administrator Scott Pruitt's visit to Vatican City. The Embassy expresses its gratitude to the Secretariat for granting Mr. Pruitt a meeting with Archbishop Gallagher on Friday, June 9 at 8:45am, and would like to humbly request that the following people be allowed to accompany Mr. Pruitt to the meeting, if possible.

Chargé d'Affaires, U.S. Embassy to the Holy See

Third Secretary, U.S. Embassy to the Holy See

Ryan Jackson, Chief of Staff, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

Jane Nishida, Acting Assistant Administrator for International and Tribal Affairs, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

Samantha Dravis, Associate Administrator for Policy, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency

The Embassy has the further honor to request that the following vehicles be permitted to enter through the Ingresso del Perugino to transport Mr. Pruitt and staff to his appointment with Archbishop Gallagher.

X

Y

Z

The Embassy would also like to request access for the following vehicles and staff to enter the Vatican through the Ingresso di Sant' Anna at 4pm on Thursday, June 8, for a privately arranged tour of the Vatican library. We respectfully request permission for the vehicles to await the Administrator in the Belvedere courtyard, if possible.

X

Y

Z

Finally, the Embassy has the honor to request access for the following vehicles and staff to enter the Vatican through the Ingresso del Perugino at 3:15pm on Friday, June 9, to transport Mr. Pruitt to the San'Damaso Courtyard, where he will meet Cardinal Pell for a privately arranged tour of the Apostolic Palace.

X

Y

Z

The Embassy of the United States to the Holy See takes this opportunity to renew the Secretariat of State the assurances of its highest consideration.

Embassy of the United States of America to the Holy See,

Rome, Italy    June 6, 2017.